

I do not want the do-not-call list in Indiana to be changed in any way! I do not want Banks being able to call me, they have harassed me more than anyone else. Banks & credit card companies I'm sure are classified as the same & I used to get constant calls from credit card companies. I want peace and quite in my home and I do not want any telemarketers calling me!

Thank You,
Beth Rule, Indiana